

First Baptist Names New Assistant Pastor

Rev. Nathan H. Bond has been called to be assistant pastor of the First Baptist church of Torrance, and has assumed his duties working with the pastor, the Rev. C. Miles Northrup.

Rev. Bond's background has been such as to prepare him adequately for the work of the pastorate with an emphasis on a ministry to youth. Born in San Fernando, Calif., he was educated in Asbury College and the graduate school of the University of Southern California. He plans to continue further graduate studies later at the California Baptist Seminary at Covina.

Upon graduation, Rev. Bond served as the principal of the Burbank and San Bernardino Christian day schools and directed the San Bernardino Youth for Christ Rally. He also served for two years as a regional director for Youth for Christ.

Trained in the field of psychology, Rev. Bond served as assistant psychiatric chaplain to the Kentucky State School for Boys, and as counselor at the California Institution for Men at Chino.

Nazarene Church to Hold Dedication

The formal dedication of the new sanctuary at the Torrance Church of The Nazarene will be held this Sunday, May 1, at 2:30 p.m. Rev. Freeman A. Brunson is pastor of the church located at 1501 West Carson street.

Delivering the dedication sermon will be Dr. G. B. Williamson, general superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, Kansas City, Missouri. Dr. R. J. Plumb, district superintendent of the Southern California District, will offer the Dedicatory Prayer.

Also to be featured on the program is Mrs. Robert Wood, well-known Long Beach harpist, who will present harp music for the prelude and offertory. Robert Foster, song director of the church, will be soloist.

Pastor Brunson has expressed appreciation for the construction of the church to all those who donated
